"I decided to book with Kim for my maternity shoot, as her photography aesthetic aligned with the type of photoshoot I was looking for. She was already recommended by a friend who also had amazing photos from her own photoshoot. I wanted a dusky natural vibe to compliment the brown/apricot colors from my dress/makeup/flowers. I wanted a sheer backdrop as well. My vision was well catered for, and I couldn't be more impressed and thankful for the outcome. I will have these special photos from my pregnancy that I will get to look at forever. Couldn't recommend Kim enough!" - Emma W
